

Richmond and Hillcroft Adult and Community College Learner Disciplinary Policy, 2018-2019.

I. Introduction

Richmond and Hillcroft Adult and Community College is committed to providing a positive environment for all learners to learn, work and socialise. To achieve this, the College encourages a culture that values all individuals and treats them with respect and integrity, embraces diversity and expects all learners to accept accountability and responsibility for their actions.

The Learner Code of Conduct (see Appendix 1) is designed to ensure that learners contribute to a safe and successful learning environment by defining the behaviour and conduct expected of them, both socially and academically and with regard to Health and Safety. Learners' attention is drawn to this code at induction and through the Learner Handbook. By signing the Learning Agreement the learner agrees to comply with this code.

Behaviour which fails to meet the Code of Conduct will be dealt with through the Disciplinary Procedure.

II. Aims of the policy

- To ensure learners and staff work in a supporting, caring and safe environment.
- To set standards of performance and behaviour.
- To make college expectations clear to learners and to encourage learners to adopt successful learning practices.
- To ensure a robust learner disciplinary procedure which staff can apply in all instances of alleged learner misconduct.
- To ensure that all instances of learner misconduct are dealt with fairly and consistently, whilst taking into account the individual circumstances of each learner.
- To raise awareness of the policy and procedures and ensure that staff understand the processes involved.
- To provide a systematic means of recording and monitoring disciplinary cases.
- To define responsibilities and allocate duties to individual members of the college staff.

III. Scope

This document applies to all enrolled learners throughout the time they are at the College, including when on College outings, placements and events. It also applies when behaviour outside the College has a detrimental effect on other members of the College (staff or learners) or to the College reputation.

The Policy also applies to the behaviour of children of learners on the college site, including when in the care of the College crèche or childminders arranged by the College.

IV. Definitions

Unacceptable Conduct: Any academic or non-academic conduct which adversely interferes with teaching and learning, is disrespectful of other members of the college community or property, brings the college into disrepute or breaches the Learner Code of Conduct (See Appendix 2 for examples of misconduct).

V. Roles and Responsibilities

- The Board: will ensure that the College has a Policy in place for dealing with cases of alleged misconduct.
- The Principal: is responsible for ensuring that the Learner Disciplinary Policy and Procedures are fully implemented and followed by all staff. The Principal will normally delegate responsibility for disciplinary matters to the appropriate senior or middle manager depending on the severity of the case.
- The Vice Principal: has the power to suspend or exclude a learner in cases of repeated or extreme misconduct, or where there is a safety consideration.
- Curriculum managers: are responsible for investigating, interviewing/ hearing cases, reporting and reviewing cases at Stage 1, 2 and 3 as appropriate. They are responsible for ensuring that the policy and procedures are followed and consistently and fairly applied. They are also responsible for maintaining records of incidents of misconduct and monitoring progress against actions. Summary evidence of misconduct is to be shared with the learner during the investigation(s) and leading up to the interviewing/ hearing case(s).
- School Administrators: are responsible for keeping a central record of all cases of misconduct and will assist with any related administrative duties.
- All staff: are responsible for reporting incidents of unacceptable behaviour.
- Tutors: are expected to manage the classroom environment, ensuring that every effort has been made to meet individual needs, including those relating to mental health or learning disabilities, so that learners can learn and work in safe and positive surroundings. They are expected to give regular feedback to learners on their behaviour, attendance and punctuality, and to inform them of the consequences of failing to comply with the College Code of Conduct. They are responsible for making learners aware of the Code at induction and for ensuring that they have received a copy of the Learner Handbook.
- Learners: are expected to take responsibility for their own behaviour and are made fully aware of the college's expectations as stated in the Learner Code of Conduct (Appendix One). Learners also have a responsibility to report incidents of disruption, violence, bullying and any form of harassment, and to exemplify and promote British Values.
- Learners: are responsible for the behaviour of their children whilst on College premises, including when in the care of the College crèche or childminders arranged by the College. Whilst the College uses Registered Childminders and qualified crèche staff, they cannot deal with serious misbehaviour, persistently distressed children or behaviour, which challenges. The childminder/ crèche manager will advise the parent of the child, and the Learner Services Manager, of any behaviour, which is unacceptable, or causing concern. Depending on the nature of the behaviour, staff will work with the parent to try to find strategies to manage this, but if this is not possible, the Learner Services Manager or senior staff member may ask the parent to find alternative external childcare. In some cases, where the parent is unable to find alternative childcare, this may mean that the learner is not able to continue their course of study. The College will make every effort to work with parents to avoid this eventuality, but reserves the right to withdraw the learner on the basis that their child's behaviour is not manageable.

VI. Confidentiality

Learner disciplinary cases will be handled sensitively and with discretion. However, the College may disclose information to the relevant authorities when it is considered necessary, including to relevant external authorities.
